You are recommended to read over Theodore Roosevelt's Reasons for going to church in another part of this issue.
Minister's sermon topic, "The Medicine of the Merry Heart."
Rev. N. W. Whitmore, Minister.

Viewfield and Forks

Services at the usual hours: Viewfield, 7:30 p.m., Forks, 7:00 p.m.
Sermon topic same as for Empress, and something for the children.

An invitation is extended to all to meet with us for a bright helpful hour.
N. W. Whitmore, Minister.

Rev. N. W. Whitmore visited Buffalo and Jenner this week in connection with the work of student missionaries of the United Church. The whole countryside is almost an unbroken stretch of green, and no matter what may come it is a pleasant relief for drought-stricken eyes, just now.

Work Delayed on Proposed Branch Line: Expected To Commence Soon

The Bassano Mail reports that a party of C.P.R. surveyors were in the Glen district surveying a spur from off the Rosemary line into that district. Some delay in the letting of the contract for the branch going north from near Rosemary has been caused by uncertainty as to the exact location of the line.

Hospital Notes

Mrs. Gilt and Mrs. Windim, who underwent appendectomy operations a week ago Monday, returned to their respective homes, Wednesday.

Mr. Tribute, of Bindloss, underwent a major operation on Tuesday.

Clifford Mephum, of Mayfield, broke his leg below the knee when he fell off his seat on a disc at the farm, Wednesday. He is now in the hospital.

Baby Middelburg, is now in town under medical care.

Mrs. M. Schneider, of Burstall, is now doing well.

Charlie Young is an inmate of the hospital, suffering from an infected foot.

Successful Sports Day: Alaskan and Burstall Divide Baseball Prize Money

Empress was fortunate in her choice of Sports Day. The early part of the day was sunny and warm and while the latter part of the day we were visited with showers, no very bad weather occurred. Chief interest was manifested in the baseball tournament.

Competing teams were: Oyen, Alaskan, Leader, Scipre, Burstall, Empress. In the first frame Burstall disposed of Oyen, 7-5; Empress defeated Scipre, 4-2; Leader and Alaskan teams each received a bye.

In the semi-finals, Alaskan defeated Leader and Burstall got the deciding count over Empress. The final game between Burstall and Alaskan was drawn, the game being called on account of darkness, with the scores tied. First and second prize money was divided between the finalists.

Horse races and juvenile athletics took place during the time the ball games were in progress. No bucking horses were brought in, so the cowboy events were omitted.

The picture show and dance were well attended. The trippers of the light fantastic were much in evidence and the morning was well advanced when the strains of "Home, Sweet Home" concluded a program of pleasant activities.

The local team did exceptionally well in the ball tournament. Partridge was admitted, by the best pitcher on the ground, serving a brand of ball which had the opposing batters continually guessing. With Ed. McCune on the receiving end, these two veterans surely were tough meat for the swat kings.

Ed. McCune sustained a bad injury to his thumb in the Burstall game.

C.P.R. Crop Report

Winnipeg, June 6.—Rains interrupted farm work in many sections of the west during the past week. In spite of this a good deal of seeding was accomplished and the drills are today in full swing everywhere. Most of the land intended for wheat has been seeded.

The outcome of late seeding depends on growing conditions and the nature of the early fall. Past experience shows that if moisture conditions are right, and this year they are favorable, wheat sown late generally does well. Early wheat is up four or five inches, and growing rapidly, the stand being even and of good colour.

As indicated in the last report, there will be a decrease in the wheat acreage in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, but from present indications it seems certain that Alberta will have as large a wheat area as last year, as there is a great deal of new land which has been brought under cultivation. Moisture situation is so favorable that seed is germinating in three or four days after going into the ground, and the crop generally is in a position to stand a long spell without further precipitation and a period of dry, warm weather will be welcome. There is a heavy demand for seed barley in all three provinces, and shortage of good seed will be a limiting factor in the acreage of this crop. The rye crop is flourishing and in all districts looks exceptionally promising at this date. Hay and rough feed show every indication of being plentiful. There seems to be an adequate supply of farm help in all sections.

Theodore Roosevelt's Nine Reasons for Going to Church

1. In this actual world, a churchhouse community where men have shunned and seceded at or ignored their religious needs, is a community on the rapid down grade.

2. Church work and church attendance mean the cultivation of the habit of feeling some responsibility for others.

3. There are enough holidays for most of us. Sundays differ from other holidays in the fact that there are fifty-two of them a year—therefore on Sunday go to church.

4. Yes, I know all the excuses. I know that one can worship the Creator in a grove of trees, or by a running river, or in a man's own house, just as well as in a church. But I also know as a matter of cold fact, the average man does not worship.

5. He may not hear a good sermon at stall. Empress game and the wound was of severe enough nature to necessitate stitching. It has put Ed. out of business for a few days at the least, while the loss of his services and experience to the team was a severe handicap. A "joke" might easily have been a "win" but for this regrettable accident.

However, every member of team endeavored to give his best and among other shining examples a circuit elout which brought in two runs by Willard Storey and a steal home on a single and a couple errors by Billy Reid, earned salves of applause from the fans.

church. He will hear a sermon by a good man who, with his good wife, is engaged all week in making hard lives a little easier.

6. He will listen to and take part in reading some beautiful passages from the Bible, and if he is not familiar with the Bible, he has suffered a loss.

7. He will take part in singing some good hymns.

8. He will meet and nod or speak to some good quiet neighbors. He will come away feeling a little more charitable toward all the world, even toward those excessively foolish young men who regard church-going as a self performance.

9. I advocate a man's joining in church work for the sake of showing his faith by his work.

Western Canada Points the Way

One of the most notable gatherings of the year, and one in which all the people of Western Canada were particularly and directly interested was the international cooperative wheat pool conference held at Kansas City, Mo., at which representatives were present from the United States, Australia, Germany, Russia, as well as from the three great wheat producing provinces of Canada.

Western Canada was really the outstanding and dominant factor at the conference. And rightly so because in three short years the farmers of the Prairie Provinces have organized and developed the greatest grain handling cooperative in the known world. Their success has been phenomenal, eclipsing anything of a like character ever attempted in connection with any commodity. They can speak from actual experience in definite achievement.

It is not surprising, therefore, that at the Kansas City conference the reports presented on behalf of the Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba Pools, and their common central selling agency, were received with great enthusiasm, and that the crops expressed and suggestions advanced by the Canadiana dominated project and gave strength to the deliberations of the conference.

Many of our own people have not yet grasped the full magnitude of the magnitude of the wheat pool, nor realize just how much has been accomplished in the brief period of approximately 1,000 days. Three years ago there was no Canadian Pool. Today, to quote A. J. McPhail, president of the Saskatchewan pool and of the Central Selling pool, there is a membership of 125,000 in the three provinces. In 1922 the Canadian pool handled 187,000,000 bushels of wheat belonging to its farmer members and 27,000,000 bushels of coarse grains. The pool has representatives in all wheat importing countries, and has direct access to eleven ports. It owns and controls approximately 500,000 acres of land in the three provinces with a combined storage capacity of approximately 22,000,000 bushels. At the head of the lakes the pool has its terminal elevators with a storage capacity around 100,000 bushels and also a 2,000-acre transfer line at Buffalo. The pool is also operating terminal elevators at Prince Rupert and Vancouver, while plans are under way for large extensions to the Victoria, Quebec, Montreal and Atlantic ports. Since the pool began to operate it has paid its farmer members about half a billion dollars.

There are truly remarkable achievements, but they do not tell the whole story. The pool has practically revolutionized the financing methods of our Western farmer. Instead of the farmer getting all his money in one bulk sum every Fall, at which time every creditor made immediate demand upon him, with the result that he was practically forced to sell his wheat at the then prevailing price, and by all selling the same same glutting the market, he now need not a first payment and several successive payments spread over the year. The result is not only orderly marketing of the wheat but orderly financing on the part of the farmer. He is not any longer dependent, except on his own terms, on the market, but he is in a position to sell his wheat at the best price. The system has led of wonderful assistance to the weaker, less business like farmers.

Equally important has been the effect the pool has had in restoring confidence to the farmer and to business. Entirely generally throughout the west. It has given the farmer a feeling of independence and security. It has brought it has emphasized the value of cooperation, and the strength that is to be found in organized cooperative effort as contrasted with each man striving to look out for his own problems and his own economic salvation.

The farmers of Western Canada have demonstrated the wisdom of having one great selling agency instead of one or two hundred thousand farmers, each selling individually and in competition with each other. The object of the Kansas City conference was to try and devise ways and means whereby the great wheat producing countries of the world could cooperate in order to compete against each other. The most cordial reception was accorded the idea, and efforts will be made to devise a workable plan.

Reopen Milk Plant

One of the largest manufacturers of milk products has recently reopened their condensing plant at South St. Louis. The whole milk supply will be obtained from the Fraser Valley, which will amount to several million gallons. The plant will employ about 100 men and women, and the payroll will be about $250,000 per month.

Orders for Farm Implements

During the past few weeks large orders for farm implements and binder twine have been placed with the Canadian National Railways by representatives of the Russian Soviet Government. The orders are for several hundred thousand dollars.

New Depot for Edmonton

The Canadian National Railways will build a new depot at Edmonton, Alberta, this year. The estimated cost is $1,000,000. The depot will be a large building, and the construction of the building has been started. The depot will be a large building, and the construction of the building has been started. ### For Friendly Relations

Sir Esme Howard, British Ambassador to U.S. Addresses San Francisco Audience

A plea for continuing of friendly relations between the United States and Great Britain, which have existed for more than 100 years, was made by Sir Esme Howard, British Ambassador to the U.S., at a banquet tendered him by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

Referring to the question of the British war debt to the United States, Sir Esme said:

"We have not been able to pay the debt and do not intend to, but if at some later date you come to us and you think it would be advisable in the general interest to reconsider the question, well, I won't say that we shall resist."

"There is the attack that has been made in certain quarters against the British Government over the question of currency," he continued.

It was agreed at the Washington conference that unless substantial aid powers were abolished, Great Britain must reserve her full power of action as to currency construction.

He also stated that the British Government had already passed a law in connection with the currency question, and as a result had thought of amending it.

Made Clocks Reliable

Correct Time Not Recorded Until Discovery of Balance Wheel

Before the invention and manufacture of watches and clocks, our forefathers employed several devices for recording the hour of the day.

The simplest is the earliest instrument of the kind, and resembles the modern sundial.

Another device was the gnomon, which was a long rod or staff, and was used to measure the height of the sun.

The third device was the water clock, which was a bowl of water with a hole in the bottom, and was used to measure the time.

The fourth device was the candle clock, which was a candle of a certain length, and was used to measure the time.

The fifth device was the hourglass, which was two glass bulbs connected by a narrow neck, and was used to measure the time.

The sixth device was the pendulum clock, which was a clock with a pendulum, and was used to measure the time.

The seventh device was the spring clock, which was a clock with a spring, and was used to measure the time.

The eighth device was the electric clock, which was a clock with an electric motor, and was used to measure the time.

The ninth device was the atomic clock, which was a clock with an atomic oscillator, and was used to measure the time.

The tenth device was the quartz clock, which was a clock with a quartz crystal, and was used to measure the time.

The eleventh device was the laser clock, which was a clock with a laser, and was used to measure the time.

The twelfth device was the GPS clock, which was a clock with a GPS receiver, and was used to measure the time.

The thirteenth device was the atomic clock, which was a clock with an atomic oscillator, and was used to measure the time.

The fourteenth device was the quartz clock, which was a clock with a quartz crystal, and was used to measure the time.

The fifteenth device was the laser clock, which was a clock with a laser, and was used to measure the time.

The sixteenth device was the GPS clock, which was a clock with a GPS receiver, and was used to measure the time.

The seventeenth device was the atomic clock, which was a clock with an atomic oscillator, and was used to measure the time.

The eighteenth device was the quartz clock, which was a clock with a quartz crystal, and was used to measure the time.

The nineteenth device was the laser clock, which was a clock with a laser, and was used to measure the time.

The twentieth device was the GPS clock, which was a clock with a GPS receiver, and was used to measure the time.

The twenty-first device was the atomic clock, which was a clock with an atomic oscillator, and was used to measure the time.

The twenty-second device was the quartz clock, which was a clock with a quartz crystal, and was used to measure the time.

The twenty-third device was the laser clock, which was a clock with a laser, and was used to measure the time.

The twenty-fourth device was the GPS clock, which was a clock with a GPS receiver, and was used to measure the time.

New Evidence Of Communist Propaganda Discovered In Raid

London.—The Daily Mail asserts that documents, which the members of the British cabinet regard as of the gravest importance, have been found in the Soviet House. They establish, the Mail says, the long suspected association between the operations of Atroc, the company controlling Russian exports and imports, and the political activities of the Soviet Government, and furnish new and remarkable evidence of Communist propaganda and activities in Great Britain.

The examination of the other seized documents will occupy some days but, says the Mail, the evidence already acquired is large enough to require the special consideration of the cabinet.

"Members of the Government acquainted with the nature of the evidence," the paper continued, "are of the opinion that it will lead to diplomatic action and afford convincing proof of the necessity of bringing off all official relations with the Soviet Government."

"Although the missing British document has not been discovered, the contents of other papers found are regarded as ample justification for the raid."

Prince Will Be Kept Busy

Has Many Engagements Before Leaving for Canada in July

London.—Looking healthy and healthy, the Prince of Wales has returned from his trip to France and Spain, which kept him away from home about a month. He was accompanied on his return by Prince George. They were greeted at Waterloo station by the Spanish ambassador, to whom the British high commissioner remarked that he had enjoyed a very pleasant time in Spain.

The Prince of Wales is facing a full list of engagements, both public and private, before he leaves for his trip to Canada in July.

Large Bequest for Charity

Wife of Prominent Winnipeg Financier Leaves $200,000 to Foundation

Winnipeg.—The Winnipeg Foundation, established several years ago for charitable purposes, benefits to the extent of $200,000 from a bequest from the will of the late Mrs. Wm. A. Alloway, which has been made public. Mrs. Alloway, who died last year, leaves her entire estate to the foundation. The amount of the bequest, $200,000, is the wife of William Alloway, prominent Winnipeg financier.

Flood Lights To Be Turned On As Part Of Jubilee Programme

Ottawa.—On the night of the sixtieth birthday of Confederation, electricity will take the place of the old bonfire light which, in the days of the Fathers of Confederation, was used to celebrate events of importance. From coast to coast of Canada, which is prevalent today in the development of electrical energy, illuminating apparatus will be installed on towers, lighted up in order to mark the occasion, of a capacity which will throw the beams for miles around, and light up the surrounding landscape.

The following recommendations were made today by the national committee for the jubilee of the government buildings, and of the main tower of the Parliament Building.

Airplane Crashes Will Be Investigated

Australian Government Will Not Rush Into Defects Says Minister

Sydney, N.S.W.—Following the loss of a series of air force machines, the minister of defence, Mr. J. H. Keating, has announced that a full investigation will take place and that it is not intended to build up any defects in the Commonwealth's air force.

The inquiry will deal with the damage suffered through the various crashes, the crash, the pilot's flight, etc.

This decision marks a departure from the government policy which hitherto insisted that all departmental inquiries be held in secret.

Government Air Mail Service

British Mail to be Taken From Ship-board to Montreal

Ottawa.—The Postmaster General today authorized the expenditure of $75,000 on new aeroplanes and for a start on September 1st on experiments of taking British letter mail off ships at Halifax and carrying them by aeroplane to Montreal.

The inquiry will deal with the damage suffered through the various crashes, the crash, the pilot's flight, etc.

If the facts are satisfactory, tenders will be invited in December for a regular service by private contractors starting next spring.

Strange Phenomenon In Owen Sound Harbor

Water Moved Out and Returned Much Above Normal Level

Owen Sound, Ont.—A strange phenomenon in Owen Sound harbor and the Sydenham River were stirred up recently, and no reason has been found for the phenomenon. Within a few minutes the waters in the harbor moved out so that the level was two feet lower than normal.

When the water returned, the level was much higher than under normal conditions. At one time the water in the harbor rose so high that some boats were resting on the mud at the bottom.

New Cruisers Have Long Range

Sydney, Australia.—The new Australian cruisers, Canberra and Australia, now being constructed in Great Britain, have a length of 699 feet, with 65 feet beam, and will carry 1,200 tons of fuel oil.

They are designed for a speed of 21.5 knots, equipped with 55 knots in the latest American and Japanese cruisers, but the range of action will be much reduced.

Ready to Test Beam Service

Messages Between Canada and Australia Possible Within Six Weeks Is Report

Melbourne, Australia.—It is officially stated that the Marconi beam service between Australia and Canada is now practically ready for testing purposes. The aerial transmitting station is almost completed and the assembling of the transmitting apparatus well advanced.

Hopes are entertained that the service will be in operation within six weeks or possibly a month.

Montreal officials of the Marconi company confirmed the above report, declaring that the situation in Canada was practically the same as in Australia.

Mr. Thompson, the chief engineer, said that the messages from Australia will be received by the apparatus at Yamachiche, near Three Rivers, and that Canadian messages to the Commonwealth will be despatched from Drummondville, Que.

He expected the beam system would be functioning properly within six weeks.

No Change in Policy

Britain Will Keep Mission to the Holy See

London.—Maintenance of an official British representative at the Vatican now can be regarded as a permanent policy of the British Government. Sir Austen Chamberlain, the Foreign Secretary, announced in the House of Commons.

"The Government does not intend withdrawing the mission to the Holy See," said Sir Austen. "It was found convenient to establish this delegation at a time of international trouble and difficulty, and to withdraw it now, when in an almost absolute position to adopt."

British relations with the Holy See were established in 1914.

Many Unemployed Men Available for Farms

But Demand in Alberta Is Expected to Drop Off

Edmonton.—With about 5,000 men placed in farm employment through out the province this season, the peak of the spring farm labor situation has been reached, according to Walter Smiten, commissioner of labor, and from now on the demand will be steadily dropping. There are still a good many unemployed men available for work on the farms if wanted, but the intensity of the season, the reduced crop, is not greatly below that of last year. About 5,000 placements on farms were made for the same period a year ago.

Notwithstanding the more or less unusual features of the situation this spring, the total number of men placed is not greatly below that of last year. About 5,000 placements on farms were made for the same period a year ago.

Regina's New Hostelry

1. The Library. 2. Ten Rooms. 3. "Hotel Saskatchewan".

The new hotel was conceived and designed with two considerations above all others in the minds of its creators: the maximum of comfort and convenience for its guests and a pleasing architectural effect. With the desired result in mind the architects have developed a design which is singularly pleasing and which will be regarded as one of the most beautiful buildings in Western Canada.

The exterior of the building is designed in Georgian style, the first two stories above the street being faced with Portland stone, quarried near Winnipeg. The main entrance has been treated with Corinthian pilasters.

The Hotel is an eleven-story building, containing 216 bedrooms with baths, and many beautiful public rooms and administrative offices. Two stories with space for more guest rooms have been left uncompleted.

One of the most pleasing rooms in the Main Lobby is overlooking the Park. The treatment of this room has a Spanish character, the antique decorated plaster, and large curved fire-place giving it a pleasing effect. The ceiling is heavily beamed and paneled.

The Bill Room, of a George Adams design, is on the first floor, as are also the Lounge, the Library and the Writing Room. The mechanical equipment is of the most modern design, all the services being practically self-contained. The hotel has its own refrigeration and electrical generating plants.

A ? Column by Noi Tall

Dear Noi Tall:

How do you obtain that unique complexion which the magazines describe as "A skin you have to touch"? People do not flock to touch mine; yet I have plastered it with skin food and drenched it with bleaching preparations. Please suggest some beneficial treatment, and oblige, Miss Fake.

Dear Miss Fake:

I am sending you my own beauty recipe and if you follow my instructions you need fear no competition. Admirers will be lined up in a queue waiting

PROVINCE OF ALBERTA

W. D. SPENCE,

DEPUTY MINISTER.

EDMONTON, May 23, 1927.

to touch for themselves the peach bloom of your school girl complexion.

First I prepare my features for their re-decorating by repeated scrubbing with Dutch Cleanser and water, then dry my face with a very absorbent blotting paper and all is quite ready to proceed.

The first process is to smother the features carefully with vanishing cream. The brand which I use is "axlegrease" obtainable at any garage. Next, I sprinkle lightly, from a pepper shaker, a dusting of powder. I have found "saisomme" to be the best in my own case. I now touch the cheeks and nose lightly with Barnpaint's rouge, line my eyebrows (these will be found just above the nose) with "Stoveblik" and finally smear my lips with "Lickies." After applying a coat of celluloid varnish of "nude" shade, I am ready.

Noi Tall.

One of our most engaging flappers, it is said, rushed into one of the local stores recently, talking rapturously of a pink dress she noticed in the window. "I just love that shade," she said, "and if it is not too long I will buy it." She was most disappointed when she was informed that what she thought was a dress, was a lamp shade.
